3.1.31. This morning I got up at 7 A.M. and washed & had tea. & read Malakia 1. Chapter. Then Mr Phurpa came & told that he was ill by yesterday. So he could not come for work. We had food & then went through the paper written by him & he wrote the Press daily works date & I made a rough rules of advertisement in the Tibetan Newspaper & wrote a letter to Prof. Shekhar. Chodron Gallo came and asks Rs 1/2 & I gave. now he owes me Rs 5/-. Mr H. S. Prodhan came & took the Laced which made here & also 3 yards my own to send down to Calcutta with Mr Hosha Lall Bechelor approved. Kunga came
(11) & had tea and then we went to Bazar with tracts & I gave about 40 tracts. On my way I went twice to see the old man's wife but he was not in, the boy & another man & the woman is lying on bed but did not speak. The man who was there asks me to give a work as he knows Tibetan writing well. Also on my way I met one Bhutanese & asks me to give work for two Bhutanese as they know Tibetan well. I told to come with them. Also on my
(to Pay) way I went to Moni Press & bought 100 sheet of green paper for my book of Jachang Lhamo. In Moni Press has no D/C Printing paper so I bought this green for work on with
(to pay) the press. Also I bought a saddle bag for Rs 1/4/-. On my way I met Munshi Dechungla & had talk. I came back at about 2½ P.M. Then I translated half of the 2 King 5. Chapter for Sunday Service tomorrow & read in Tibetan. I finished about half. Dr Knox came & asked me about the lantern show as it is moon light, I told we will show on the back side of the Dharamsala. After 3 Bhutanese for asking work & I had talk & they went back. Then we got ready for lantern & I had food & went to Dharamsala & showed picture & had a nice time. We had the show in side the Dharamsala. We came back at about 7.30 P.M. This morning the new shop of Boots & Butch came & had tea & requested me to give work in the two. This day was very good & sunshine & had good time with the Lord. Went to bed at ~~about~~ 10.30 P.M. after getting ready for tomorrows Service.
